

A Guide to Importation of Personal & Household Effects into New Zealand

TO QUALIFY FOR DUTY FREE ENTRY

- Wearing apparel, toiletries, wedding gifts (with a value of less than NZ$110) and other personal effects are admitted duty and GST free so long as they are intended for your own personal use or wear and are not intended for any other person or for gift, sale or exchange.
- Household goods imported by returning New Zealanders are admitted free of duty and GST provided they have resided outside New Zealand for more than 21 months and that the goods have been owned and used overseas by them.
- Household goods imported by migrants are admitted free of duty and GST where the migrant holds a permanent residency visa, a "work to residence" visa or a work permit (valid for at least 12 months) in their passport upon arrival of the goods in New Zealand. The goods must have been owned and used overseas prior to importation.
- Goods sent to a person in New Zealand as a gift will be admitted entirely free of duty and GST provided the value does not exceed NZ$110.
- Antiques must be over 100 years old and accompanied by a B.A.D.A certificate.
- At the discretion of NZ Customs wine collections may be imported duty and GST free; evidence is required demonstrating that the wine has been collected over a period of time, is of varying types and genuinely forms part of the importer's household effects.
- Inherited goods should be accompanied by a death certificate and a copy of the will or a letter from the executor confirming the inheritance.
- Unless the above criteria are satisfied duty and GST (Goods And Services Tax) are payable.

CUSTOMS/QUARANTINE CLEARANCE

Our destination representative will supply a combined Customs/MAF Declaration form, which must be completed in New Zealand by the owner of the goods and presented with a full, descriptive inventory and passport containing your visa if required (or certified copy). If your goods are likely to precede your arrival in New Zealand you may nominate a friend or relative to act on your behalf. You will need to provide

- Letter of Authority nominating your friend or relative to clear your good on your behalf
- Legible copy of photo/details page of passport (New Zealand/Australia) and your Visa (all other countries)
- Assessed value of consignment
- Date first left New Zealand to live overseas (returning New Zealanders)
- Evidence of your date of arrival into New Zealand

The owner must arrive within 6 months of arrival of the consignment at the port in New Zealand. NZ Customs has the discretionary right to apply a monetary bond, refundable upon presentation of passport and receipt within 6 months of the arrival of the consignment.

QUARANTINE EXAMINATION

All packing lists are screened by the MAF/Quarantine Service to determine whether a consignment can be released immediately or whether an examination is required. Consignments containing alcohol, tobacco, medicines or prescription drugs may be delayed, incur additional costs and possibly be subject to a physical examination. For prescribed drugs a copy of the prescription will be required by NZ Customs. If MAF wishes to inspect a consignment the following approximate fees will apply:

Baggage consignment	NZ$ 75
Groupage Removal up to 142 cu ft	NZ$ 150
Groupage Removal over 142 cu ft	NZ$ 200
Full container Load	NZ$ 320

The above fees incorporate both MAF charges and our representative's fee for handling, arranging and accounting for the inspection and are payable to our representative. A MAF Permit Fee of NZ$50 is payable on all consignments imported into New Zealand, irrespective of volume or weight and may not be prepaid.

FUMIGATION/STEAM CLEANING

If fumigation/steam cleaning of items (such as saddlery, cane ware, sports and garden equipment, tents, hiking or camping gear etc) is ordered as a result of a MAF inspection you will be responsible for costs incurred (one item approx NZ$75, Full container approx NZ$400).
